EXPLANATION OF LEVEL OF DEVELOPMENT

In choosing the right camp for the junior, it is best to know what their given skill level is. For those who are brand new or have just started and need a good deal more instruction, the Beginners Camp is ideal for you. For those who are beginning to play more often, can manage to get the ball in the air, know how to putt, and can keep up on the golf course, the Players level is for you. In some cases where a junior is a Beginner but could learn enough to then attend a Players camp after attending a Beginners Camp, sign up for those appropriate camps that fit your schedule.

WHAT DO THE CAMPS ENTAIL?

Drop off for the camps will be from 7:45-8 am. Juniors must wear appropriate apparel which includes light clothing for summer.
